Garrowhill Community Centre

Maxwell Drive

Wednesday 3rd May 2017

Present: Murray Packer (MP1), Dougie McCallum (DM), Maria Paterson (MP2), Andy Henderson (AH), Bill McMaster (BM) John Coutts (JC)

PC Joanne Walker, PC Stewart Menzies

Apologies: Jacqueline Cowan (JC2), Elaine Ballantyne (EB), Councillor David Turner (DT),

1a - Minutes from previous meeting proposed by BM and seconded by AH

2a - Police Scotland

PC Joanne Walker and PC Stewart Menzies in attendance and reported:
Break in at Garrowhill Bowling Club

No house break-ins, no suspicious persons and no bogus crimes

3a - Treasurer's Report

No update to provide

4a - Planning/ Licensing

Tennis Courts

No further information available from Glasgow Life. Per the recent Area Partnership meeting there does not appear to be funding currently available to fund the project. It was also discussed that the proposed set up (ie not supervised) could lead to Health and Safety issues.

Noted the intention of Baillieston Credit Union to move into the premises currently occupied by Irene's. No objection to change of use.

5a - Roads/Lighting/Barrier

MP had been provided with information on various areas where potholes had been identified and reported by EB:

- 7 potholes on Whirlow Road, Bakewell Road, Barrachnie Road and Bannercross Drive;
- Request to resurface Thornbridge Road
- Request from several residents re a right turn filter lane going towards Mount Vernon Avenue
- Report received by an elderly resident re dangerous pavement on Glasgow Road across from Ladyhill Drive.

6- Councillor David Turner

- Councillor not present

7- AOB

Sherbourne Park

Red Blaise has been spread on path but is too thick. This has been reported to LES – but no action has been taken to date. When a resident called to request an update on the work to be completed they were informed that it had been ‘tarmaced’.

Post Office at Barrachnie

Still looking for a new tenant to operate the PO facility.

Litter at Thornbridge Shops

Still an ongoing issue. BM asked if we had been contacted by the new BHS head teacher. No contact as yet. Discussion on how we should address this issue. Agreed MP would contact the head teacher. Contact LES to request bins to be emptied more frequently. MP to contact

Website

Need a volunteer to edit information on the CC website. Someone who could sort out information and add any new information
